Secretary's Message

At Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College, we are committed to shaping strong, responsible individuals ready to meet today's challenges. Our efforts focus on guiding students to become capable leaders in a global society, free from prejudice and mediocrity.

This newsletter reflects the dedication of our staff and students in creating a nurturing environment for growth, both academically and personally. I pray our students continue to make wise and impactful decisions in their lives.

Mr. C. Khaizer Ahmed

Secretary and Correspondent

Principal's Message

At Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College, we aspire to create not just educated individuals but compassionate, ethical leaders. Our curriculum and activities are designed to nurture both academic excellence and personal growth.

In this fast-paced, digital world, I encourage you to stay rooted in your values and contribute meaningfully to your community.

I thank our Secretary Janab Khaizer Ahmed Sahib for his consistent support and our faculty and students for their hard work in making this newsletter a reality.

Dr. M. Renu
Principal
