Clean India 2.0 campaign and Fit India Freedom walk/ Rally 3.0

The National Service Scheme (IWASC) orchestrated a commendable "Clean India 2.0 campaign and Fit India Freedom Run / walk/ Rally 3.0" from October 5 to October 31, 2022, targeting various locations, including Al-Huda School, Islamiah College, Railway Station, Kavalur School, Bus Stand, and Ponneri. This initiative aimed at instilling a sense of environmental responsibility and cleanliness among the community. The campaign received valuable support from the National Service Scheme, contributing 100 trees for plantation. A total of 100 enthusiastic participants, comprised of students and staff members, actively engaged in thorough cleaning activities at the designated venues. Under the guidance of dedicated NSS coordinators, Ms. E. Mala, Ms., Ms. J. Jayadurga, N. Sumathi and Ms. Sowmiya, the campaign not only achieved its objectives but also showcased a collective commitment to a cleaner and greener environment. The attached photos capture the spirit and active participation of the community during the Clean India 2.0 campaign and Fit India Freedom Run / walk/ Rally 3.0, emphasizing the success of the initiative in fostering a sense of environmental consciousness and community responsibility.

NSS PROGRAMME REPORT BLOOD PRESSURE AND SUGAR LEVELS TEST

13.05.2022

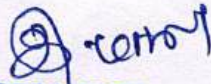

On May 13th, 2022, National Service Scheme of Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College organized, Blood pressure and Sugar levels test in the Municipal Muslim Boys Primary School (Urdu) at Gandhi Nagar, Vaniyambadi,. The session began at 11:00 AM with the recitation of verses from the Holy Quran. Ms. E. Mala the Coordinator of NSS delivered the welcome address and the inauguration led by Dr. M.Renu, Principal of Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College hosted a general medical camp aimed at assessing health parameters and providing guidance for students and village residents. Led by Dr. Henna James, M.B.B.S, the camp focused on conducting health screenings, including weight, height, BMI calculation, blood pressure, and sugar level tests. In this program totally 75 NSS volunteers were participated.

Dr. Henna James conducted comprehensive health assessments, checking students' weight and height to calculate BMI. Additionally, blood pressure and sugar levels were tested for village residents, providing valuable insights into their overall health status. These assessments served as important tools for identifying potential health concerns and guiding further interventions she offered personalized suggestions on proportional foods for students with low BMI, emphasizing the importance of a balanced diet for optimal health and well-being. Her guidance aimed to empower individuals to make informed dietary choices and address nutritional deficiencies effectively.

The medical program left a positive impact on participants, equipping them with valuable insights into their health status and offering practical guidance for improvement. By addressing health concerns and providing tailored recommendations, Dr. Henna James contributed to fostering a healthier and more informed community. The resource person expressed gratitude to the organizers for conducting the program. Ms. Jaya Durga, Assistant Professor of Computerscience concluded the Program with a vote of thanks, followed by the recitation of the National Song.

Nutritious Foods & Low nutrient and Fast Food- (09.05.2022)

On May 9th, 2022, NSS of Islamiah women's Arts and Science college Vaniyambadi organized nutritional awareness Program on Nutritious Foods & Low nutrient and Fast Food at the Municipal Muslim Boys Primary School (Urdu) in Gandhi Nagar, Vaniyambadi. The program began at 11.00 Clock with the recitation Holy Qur'an. Ms. Mala, NSS program officer gave inagural address. Dr. M. Eswari, Head, Department of Food and Nutrition addressed the students school children the importance of nutritious foods.

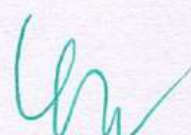

75 NSS students explained the importance of consuming nutritious foods using Charts and Posters. They shed light on the benefits of a balanced diet rich in essential nutrients and vitamins, contrasting it with the detrimental effects of low-nutrient and fast foods. The school children made aware of nutritious food by conducting quiz program. Students were equipped with the knowledge needed to make informed dietary choices for their overall health and well-being.

Following the awareness sessions, college students took proactive steps to reinforce the importance of nutrition by distributing nutritious foods to the school children. Vegetables, fruits, milk, and peanut candy were offered, providing wholesome alternatives to unhealthy snacks. This gesture not only provided immediate nourishment but also served as a tangible demonstration of the value placed on health and nutrition within the community.

The collective efforts of NSS volunteers showcased the transformative power of education and community engagement in promoting health, well-being, and environmental sustainability.

NSS PROGRAMME REPORT VILLAGE CLEANING

09-02-2019

On February 9th, 2019, National Service Scheme of Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College organized Village Cleaning at various areas within Kavakarai village, including the school campus, Samundi temple, and other prominent locations. NSS students embarked on a comprehensive clean-up drive, targeting key areas in Kavakarai village. They began by tidying up the school campus, ensuring a clean and conducive environment for learning. Subsequently, they extended their efforts to the Samundi temple, a significant religious site in the community, where they meticulously cleaned the surroundings and removed accumulated debris.

In addition to the school campus and temple, NSS students ventured to other prominent locations within Kavakarai village, addressing litter and debris accumulation. The community clean-up initiative led by NSS students left a tangible impact on the cleanliness and aesthetics of Kavakarai village. Their dedicated efforts not only resulted in visibly cleaner surroundings but also instilled a sense of ownership and responsibility among residents towards maintaining cleanliness in public spaces. Furthermore, the initiative served as a reminder of the importance of environmental stewardship and collective action in fostering a cleaner and healthier community.

As the NSS camp, the community clean-up initiative underscored the commitment of 50 NSS students towards serving the community and promoting environmental sustainability. The Kavakarai village people appreciated and thanks the coordinator and the NSS students efforts.

NSS PROGRAMME REPORT Eye Screening Camp- (05.02.2019)

On 05-02-2019, National Service Scheme of Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College organized, "Eye Screening Camp" at the Government High School in Nekkundhi Village in collaboration with Vasan Eye Care, Ambur. The session began at 11:00 AM with the recitation of verses from the Holy Quran. Ms.E.Mala the Coordinator of NSS delivered the welcome address. The event aimed to provide vision health services to village residents and school students, benefitting over 200 individuals.

The Day began with the setup of the eye screening camp, where trained professionals from Vasan Eye Care, Ambur, provided comprehensive eye examinations to attendees. Village residents and school students alike had the opportunity to undergo screenings for various vision-related issues, including refractive errors, cataracts, and other eye conditions. Through this initiative, individuals received vital insights into their eye health and access to necessary interventions.

The Eye Screening Camp made a significant impact on the community by addressing vision health needs and promoting early detection and treatment of eye conditions. By offering free screenings and consultations, the event ensured that individuals, regardless of their socioeconomic status, could receive essential eye care services. Moreover, by partnering with a reputable eye care provider, the camp instilled confidence in attendees regarding the quality and reliability of the services offered. 50 NSS students actively participated in the session. Ms.Hajira Begum, Assistant Professor of Tamil concluded the event with a vote of thanks, followed by the recitation of the National Song.

NSS PROGRAMME REPORT

Campus Cleaning

04.02.2019

On 04-02-2019, National Service Scheme of Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College organized Campus Cleaning Program at the Government High School in Nekkundhi Village became a hub of service and community engagement as the NSS program unfolded. The session began at 11:00 AM with the recitation of verses from the Holy Quran. Ms. E. Mala the Coordinator of NSS delivered the welcome address,

The NSS camp commenced with a ceremonious inauguration led by Dr. Akthar Begum, Principal of Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College emphasizing the importance of community service and the role of youth in driving positive change. Mr. T. Kandhasami M.A., B.Ed, Secretary & Treasurer of Vaani Educational Trust was consented to be the chief guest. He gave the talk about the importance of community service and the role of youth in driving positive change. Their words of wisdom and encouragement set the tone for the camp, inspiring participants to embrace their roles as agents of social transformation.

The inauguration was attended by key stakeholders, including the village counselor, president of the Parents Teachers Association, school headmaster, and teachers. With 50 NSS volunteers and two program officers in attendance, the camp aimed to foster a spirit of service and social responsibility among participants.

Throughout the camp, NSS volunteers engaged in community service initiatives aimed at addressing local needs and fostering community development. These initiatives not only benefited the local community but also empowered volunteers to make a tangible difference in the lives of others. The resource person expressed gratitude to the organizers for conducting the program. Ms. Jaya Durga, Assistant Professor of Computer science concluded the event with a vote of thanks, followed by the recitation of the National Song.
